Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 1 and 2 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Carroll (5462116).

Carroll discloses a method of and device for desorbing methane from a coal formation comprising a mechanical vibrating or sonic device 34 near the coal formation to desorb methane gas (col. 2, lines 54-67; col. 3, lines 1-11).

Conclusion

The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. Melson et al. (6390191, col. 5, lines 1-8) and Selinger (6877566, col. 3, lines 49-50) present a sonic device to separate gas from a coal seam. Hardin et al. (5351754, col. 3, line 23) and Masszi (4305464, col. 3, lines 19-21) describe providing a mechanical vibration at the surface to desorb gas.
